

Indian businessman hopes to win Madrid Racing

Madrid, Feb 28 (Prensa Latina) Indian businessman Syed Ali Ahsan, the top shareholder of the Spanish club Racing de Santander, said Monday that his team is the best, and no doubt the victory against Real Madrid on Sunday.

No surprise me if we win at Real Madrid, but I will not go into comparisons, said the magnate for whom, Racing is the best in the world.

Syed Ali said that is a businessman, but also a philanthropist, and justified the purchase of Racing and the possibility of realizing the dream I always had of owning a football team, even if it's a sport that never practiced.

But it also declared an amateur again, with the same expectations as other racing fans, hence not think that will disappoint in the future.

I'm not the president, I am an amateur but has reversed its economic capacity in the club, said Syed Ali.

In purely sporting, reiterated his vision for the team is getting a football practice with the best talent, wherever it comes it comes, either through future transfers or the quarry itself.

The employer made it clear he has no intention of changing the name of the sports fields of Sardinero by his company, Western Gulf Advisory announced after the reconstruction of the stadium.
