Revilla explained that Syed Ali's participation not only implies the presence of the Foundation, but also "a commitment to disseminate the project in his country and helping to recruit students from India, including by creating scholarships for students without financial resources".

"We want to engage on issues of Cantabria, who wants it and is one more of us", he underlined.

According to the Government in its note, Syed Ali has called the project "fantastic", said Major Seminary facilities have left him "speechless" and stressed his intention both to promote Spanish culture in India and the culture India in Spain, because both are "two countries with much to learn from each other."

Revilla and Syed Ali were accompanied on his visit by the Minister of Culture, Tourism and Sport, Javier López Marcano, the director of the Fundación Comillas, Ignacio Gaviria, the Mayor of Comillas, Maria Teresa Noceda, and President of Racing, Francisco Pernia, among others. EFE-Cantabria
